Deadline	Item	Current Price
2015-4-22 20:46	Digital Watch	56.21
2015-5-28 17:52	Laptop HP	340.5
2015-5-29 17:33	Ixus Camera	310.2

2015-6-27 18:14	Laptop acer	200.56
2015-7-31 01:04	Laptop Toshiba	225.25

On the right, a modal window titled "Bid an Item" is open. It contains the following form fields:

- Seller: Richard
- Deadline: 2015-05-28 17:52
- Title: Laptop HP
- Current price: 340.5
- No of bid:: 2
- Description: HP Pavilion
- Bidder: Kit
- Amount: 350

There is a "Place Bid" button at the bottom of the modal. A "Close" button is also present near the description field.

we receive the message that the bid is saved successfully

This screenshot shows the same web application as the previous one, but with a confirmation message displayed. A small white dialog box with the text "Bid saved successfully" and an "OK" button is centered on the screen. The background is dimmed, showing the same "Bid an Item" modal form with the "Place Bid" button now disabled.

I refresh the Bid entity and the new Bid is there:
